

Miss. Mame Carson is home again after a pleasant visit with friends in Sioux City, Iowa.

Mrs. D. H. Wheeler of Omaha, spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Marshall.

Miss Laura Dethlefs has returned from New York, where she has been attending school,

Mrs. C. M. Shepherd and Mrs. John M. Stewart returned Monday from Colorado.

Wilson Winger has returned from a six weeks' outing at Spirit Lake.

Dr. F. D. Crim left Monday for New York.

Madame Randall is ill with typhoid fever.

Cards have been received in this city announcing the approaching marriage of Miss Blair and Professor Ward on Tuesday, September eleventh at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Charlotte R. Robinson, 3366 South Park Avenue, Chicago. They will be at home Thursday after November Frst, at 1235 U Street, Lincoln.

Ed Bignell is confined to his home by an attack of rheumatic fever.

Attorney-General Hastings was in O'Neill during the week.

Professor George M. Frankforter an alumnus of the University of Nebr. now professor of chemistry and director of the chemical laboratories in the University of Minnesota, was in the city during the week.

Ex-Senator Paddock, of Beatrice, was in the city Tuesday.

Mrs. Phelps Paine, who has been seriously ill, is rapidly recovering.

Mr. S. B. Duffield, an art teacher engaged by the conservatory, arrived from Boston Tuesday.

Charley Rigg of Beatrice, who is prominently mentioned for the place of secretary of the republican state central committee, was in the city Tuesday.

Wing Allen of Omaha, Earl Bridgman and Ray Welch, spent Sunday in Beatrice

Mrs. I. P. Dement entertained most charmingly a few young lady friends at tea on Tuesday evening. Her guests were the Misses Mary Glover, Georgia Lovell, Jeanette Underwood, Mary Louise Underwood Hallie Hooper.

The most delightful sailing party of the season was enjoyed by the following young people at Lincoln Salt Lake on Monday evening: Misses Bertie Clark, Georgia Loveil, Jeanette Underwood, Mary Glover, Dena Loomis, Mary Louise Underwood, Charlotte Clark, Blossom Williamson and Messrs Will F. Meyer, C. Y. Smith, Harry Hicks, Earl Bridgman, Will Clark, Gene Brown, Ray Welch and Claire Young. The boats sailed at about six o'clock laden with dashing girls, gallant men, banjos, guitars, mandolins and last but not least baskets filled with delicious refreshments. After a two hours' sail the party returned and whiled away an hour or two tripping the light fantastic in the large pavilion.

Mr. Underwood of Chicago is the guest of his uncle John I. Underwood.

A jolly crowd of young girls gave a picnic and dance at Lincoln Park Tuesday evening. A number of young men took the six o'clock car which carried them to the park and arrived in time to enjoy a tempting repast which was spread on a large table under the trees. Afterwards the party betook themselves to the pavilion where the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. Mesdames Kerns and Heaton chaperoned the following Misses. Grace Ashton, Daisy Cochrane, Stella Curtice, Florence Fawell, Sadie Graham, Helen Hoover, Ethelyn Hooper, Ada Heaton, Grace Huntsinger, Dora Harley, Emerald Jones, Fannie Rector, Ena Ricketts Jo Lottbridge and Messrs Ernest Folsom, Arthur Walsh, Homer Honeywell, Claire Young, Arthur Hamer, McGenlea, George Walsh, Harry Evans, Frank Kitchen, Ora Ward, Frank Askens, John Lottridge, Clate Shrader, Elmer Merrill, Harry Grupe, Ernest Haughton, John Farwell and Winger.

The members of the Epworth league of St. Paul M. E. church gave a very enjoyable fete at the handsome home of Mr and Mrs. L. C. Richards, corner of Fourteenth and R. Streets Tuesday evening. The large lawn was illuminated with many colored lanterns and young girls gowned as dainty as fairies served ices and cake during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Howe have returned from an extended visit to Mr. Howe's former home in Massachusetts.

□J. B. Weston, Miss Katharine and H. T. Weston, of Beatrice, passed through Lincoln this week en route to Manitou, Colorado.

Miss Katharine Weston of Beatrice was in town Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Burnham and family returned Tuesday from Boston and various points in the east.

Miss. Sarah Harris and Miss Bertie Clark spent Tuesday in Omaha.

The complimentary dance given by the Pleasant Hour club to the Patriarchs and Empire clubs last Tuesday evening at Burlington Beach was noticeable in the fact that it was the first dancing party given in Lincoln in a long time in which the older and younger elements of society were together; and the party was rendered doubly enjoyably by reason of this fact. In Lincoln as a rule the young people constitute one "set" and the older people another. There are few occasions when they get together.

Wednesday evening Miss Maud Shaw entertained a large number of friends at her home 1705 D street. The parlors were prettily decorated with wild flowers and in one corner was a punch bowl banked with ferns. Miss Willowby furnished delightful music for the dancers. Card tables were arranged in the library for those who did not care to participate in the merry whirl. The lawn in front of the house was brilliantly illuminated with Japanese lanterns and hammock and tete-a-tete seats were scattered about under the trees. At 11 o'clock dainty refreshments were served to the following young people: Misses Nelle Lau, Florence Farwell, Della Schofield, Lottie Whedon, Dora Harley, Nellie Griggs, Josephine Lottridge, Alice Matland, Ena Ricketts, Florence Winger, Annie Brady, Clara Buckstaff, Stella Kirker, Clara Smith, Maud Hammond, May Whiting, Georgie Camp, Blanche Garten, Ada Heaton, Ellen Gere, Sallie Groh, Maud Risser, Libbie Seacrest. Messrs. Manley, Ames, Grupe, Graham, Clements, Brown, Pulis, Young, Walsh, Cullen, Westerman, Marley, White, Risser, Farwell, Everett, Ricketts, Walsh, Hasbrouck, Wheeler, Haughton, Jones and Winger.

Miss Zadie Rector has returned to Cincinnati, O., where she has accepted a position as teacher in the college of music.

Colonel Bills returned to his home at Fairbury Wednesday.

Nelson McDowell, of the secretary of state's clerical force, has returned from Fairbury.

Mr. C. H. Imhoff's little son, Richard, is quite ill with fever.

Mrs. W. E. Gosper has gone to Chicago.

Mrs. H. J. Hall and little daughter Helen left Wednesday for St. Louis.

Mrs. G. M. Bartlett and Mrs. H. B. Thompson have gone to Manitou, Colo.

Mrs. W. H. Wright and son, who have been the guests of Mrs. H. J. Hall for the past few weeks, left Wednesday for St. Louis.